

FRIENDS OF WILDERNESS BATTLEFIELD, Inc.
BYLAWS

Revised and Approved by the FoWB Board of Directors

December 9, 2023

ARTICLE 1 - NAME.

Friends of Wilderness Battlefield, Inc. may also from time to time be referred to herein and elsewhere as “FoWB”.

ARTICLE II - NATURE OF ORGANIZATION/PURPOSES.

Section A - Nature of Friends of Wilderness Battlefield

FoWB shall be organized and operated as a not-for-profit membership corporation that has been determined to be an organization to which deductible charitable contributions may be made pursuant to §501(c)(3) of the Code of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service or any substituted or replacement sections therefore.

Section B - Purposes.

The purposes for which FoWB shall be operated are those stated in its Articles of Incorporation and its previous Articles of Association the same paraphrased as follows:

1. To provide advocacy, educational programs, and service projects for the National Park Service and its entity Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania National Military Park (hereinafter NPS), with specific emphasis on Civil War era actions and activities, the Overland Campaign and the Wilderness Battlefield. In addition to the area battlefields maintained by the NPS and partnering organizations, FoWB will, when feasible, provide support to the preservation and interpretation of battlefield areas. Support can include, but not be limited to, in-kind assistance, monetary donations and management of battlefield areas.
2. To promote for the benefit of the general public, the preservation, protection, and interpretation of the natural and historic resources of the Commonwealth of Virginia, principally in the Wilderness area of Spotsylvania and Orange counties.
3. To increase community appreciation, understanding and use of the natural and historic environment through advocacy, education, protection and preservation of land in a manner best suited for the sites, for the education, enjoyment and benefit of present and future generations.

4. To conduct, sponsor or facilitate the holding of special tours, lectures, conferences, seminars and other educational activities relating to FoWB purposes.
5. To apply for and administer grants and other donations relating to the purposes of the corporation and to use all assets controlled by FoWB and all income thereof for the benefit of the general public and for charitable, educational, conservation, scientific and historic purposes.
6. To aid, support and assist partnering organizations or foundations that are organized and operated exclusively for purposes that are in line with those of FoWB stated here with no part of the earnings of which benefits any individual or otherwise improperly attempting to influence legislation.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP/MEETINGS.

Section A - Membership.

Any individual or family unit who has applied for membership in FoWB and tendered the appropriate dues amount in a timely manner as defined by the Membership Committee, and approved by the Board, shall be a member in good standing. Should the Board, by majority vote, subsequently determine to rescind that membership, the party shall be refunded the dues, prorated to the date of rescission.

Section B - Membership Classes and Dues.

The Board may create and amend such dues paying membership classes as it deems in the best interests of FoWB. Annual dues shall be in the amount set by the Board.

Section C - Membership Meetings and Voting.

1. Annual Meeting.
  - a. The annual meeting of the members of FoWB shall be held in the last quarter of the calendar year to ensure compliance with Article V, Section A requirements. The specific date, time and location of the annual meeting shall be set by the Board by the end of the first quarter for that calendar year. The President of the Board shall preside over the annual meeting.
  - b. The meeting shall be held for the purpose of electing Directors, for the consideration of such other transaction of such business as suggested by the agenda in Item 6, and for business as may properly come before the assembly. If the election of Directors is not held on the day designated for the annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall cause that election to be held at a special meeting of the membership as soon thereafter as the same may be conveniently called.

2. Regular Meetings. A schedule of regular membership meetings for the coming year may be established by the Board at the December Board meeting with the agendas therefore available to members on request not less than five (5) days prior to the date of the meetings. Any such regular meeting shall be open to the general public.

3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the membership may be convened by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors, or by a petition for such a meeting signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the regular membership. At the option of the Board, any such special meeting may be open to the general public.

4. Date, Time and Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors may designate any convenient day and time and any place for any annual or special meeting called by the Board. For those special meetings called by the President acting alone, he/she shall make those determinations personally, subject to the same limitations established for the Board. Appearance at a meeting or a waiver of notice signed by a member entitled to vote at such a meeting serves to evidence that member's presence for the purposes of determining a quorum and an authorization for the meeting to be held on the date and at the place and time for which notice was given, whether or not actual notice of the same was received by that member.

5. Notice of Meetings. Written notice announcing the place, day and time of the annual meeting shall be published, sent or hand delivered not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting. Written notices announcing the place, day, and time for special meetings shall be published, sent or hand delivered not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the meeting. Special meeting notices shall also specify the purpose(s) for which the meeting is being called. Notices shall be published, sent or hand delivered to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting and to each member who has been granted seat or voice at such meetings. Notices shall be published, sent or hand delivered in the manner most likely to reach each individual member.

6. Order of Business. The order of business for an annual meeting of the members should include, but is not limited to:

- a. Call to order
- b. Proof-or waiver-of notice
- c. Determination of a quorum
- d. Review of the minutes of the previous annual meeting
- e. Treasurer's report
- f. Reports of prior year's activities and acts of Directors, officers, and committees
- g. Unfinished business
- h. New business
- i. Election of Directors
  - (1) Report of Nominating Committee
  - (2) Call for floor nominations of qualified and available candidates
  - (3) Close nominations and conduct election
  - (4) Announce new Directors
- j. Announcements
- k. Adjournment

7. Quorum. Ten percent (10%) of the voting members of FoWB shall constitute a quorum at any annual, regular, or special meeting of the membership. If less than 10% of the voting members are present at such a meeting, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting to a specific date, time, and place; however, no other business may be conducted. At the reconvening of any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is then present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed.

8. Conduct of Meetings. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the organization in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws or any special rules of order that FoWB or its board may adopt. At his/her discretion the presiding officer may appoint a person, who does not have to be a member, to serve as parliamentarian. Except where otherwise specified herein, the majority required to adopt a motion or resolution shall be those of the voting members present at the meeting.

9. Voting Generally. Each member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote upon each issue properly submitted to a vote at a meeting of the membership. Voting on a multiple-choice issue, such as the election of Directors, is to be non-cumulative. Any party listed on the membership rolls whose dues for the current year are in arrears, based on policy recommended by the Membership Committee and approved by the Board, is not a member in good standing and shall have neither voice nor vote at membership meetings. There shall be no voting by proxy.

ARTICLE IV - BOARD.

Section A - General Powers.

The business operations and general affairs of FoWB shall be controlled and managed by its Board of Directors, referred to herein and generally as "the Board"

Section B - Duties and Responsibilities

In General: Board members are responsible for familiarity with FoWB governance and oversight policies and shall abide by the FoWB Code of Conduct, the Conflict of Interest policy and the policy on Information Confidentiality and Disclosure, and all other policies passed by the Board to ensure promotion of the organization's mission.

Of Special Emphasis: Particular areas for Board member responsibility include, but are not limited to, confidentiality of volunteer and donor lists; treatment of fellow members with respect; confidentiality of internal business communications; regular reporting of volunteer time; and participation in FoWB events beyond Board meetings. It is the Board's responsibility to not only continually assess the effectiveness and appropriateness of existing policies and operations, but also to modify or replace by Board vote past policies and operations, when appropriate.

Section C - Number, Election.

The Board shall be composed of not less than seven (7) nor more than fifteen (15) persons who are elected by the general membership at the annual meeting. The total number of Director positions available on the Board shall be established by the Board not less than 90 days prior to the annual meeting. The newly composed Board, based on the election results at the annual meeting, assumes office on January 1 of the upcoming year.

Section D - Nomination Process

A Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board, not less than 90 days prior to an annual meeting at which Board members are to be elected. -The committee shall recruit and present a slate of qualified candidates for the positions to be filled by election. The slate prepared by this committee shall be available to the general membership at least 30 days prior to the meeting at which the elections will be held.

To the extent feasible, the number of Board vacancies to be filled in any given year is approximately equal.

Any member in good standing may ask of the nominating committee to be considered for an upcoming Board position. All persons nominated by the nominating committee must be members in good standing who have agreed to serve if elected. Any candidate nominated from the floor at the annual meeting must be a member in good standing and must provide a signed written statement at the time of nomination to agree to serve if elected. All nominees must have agreed to serve under the bylaws and published policies of FoWB.

Section E - Tenure, Removal.

Members elected to serve as Directors shall hold office for a three-year term or until the Director's death; or removal from the Board for cause; or until their resignation is accepted by the Board. A Director can be removed from office by a majority of the membership present and voting at a special meeting called for that purpose or by a majority vote of the Board, as described in the FoWB Code of Conduct.

Section F - Vacancies.

Any vacancy arising on the Board for any reason other than the normal expiration of a term of office or as a result of removal by the membership may be filled for the remainder of its unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining Directors.

Section G - Meetings.

1. Regular Board Meetings. At the first meeting following the annual membership meeting, the Board shall adopt a budget, and set the dates of regular meetings for the coming year.
2. Special Board Meetings. Special meetings, to include in-person and by electronic means, of the Board may be called by the President on his/her own initiative or by resolution adopted by a majority of the Board. The notice for such a special meeting shall include the agenda to be considered at that meeting. Meetings called by electronic means shall state the specific action(s) requested from the meeting.
3. Notice
  - a. As the time of regular board meetings are set for the year, the establishment of such schedule is deemed as notice for regular meetings. If a meeting date is changed, notice of the new date is to be given to Board members at least fourteen calendar (14) days prior. A draft agenda for any regular board meeting is to be provided to Board members at least five calendar (5) days prior.
  - b. Notice of special meetings shall be given at least five calendar (5) days prior. Such notices shall be sent in the manner most likely to reach each individual member. This includes postal or electronic mail, telephone or direct verbal communication, or facsimile. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Director at a Board meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the sole, express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because of improper notice and does not otherwise participate in the meeting. Such notice shall include the subject of the special meeting.

Section H – Attendance, Quorum, Voting.

- a. Unless where otherwise specified herein, a majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any annual, regular, or special meeting of the Board. Each Director may cast one vote on each matter coming before the Board for decision.
- b. The Board of Directors may permit any or all Directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by any other means of communication by which all Directors participating may simultaneously hear and participate in discussion and conduct the business with each other during the meeting. A Director participating in a meeting by any other means than in-person is deemed to be present at the meeting.
- c. Attendance and actions for any Board meetings conducted by any other means instead of all in-person attendance shall be documented in accordance with Board approved procedures.

ARTICLE V- OFFICERS/OFFICES

Section A - General, Election, and Tenure.

The officers of FoWB shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. An officer must be a Board member.

Following the election of any new directors at the FoWB annual meeting, the coming calendar year's Board shall meet immediately after the December FoWB Board meeting, or if not then, before the end of December to elect officers, plus one director who shall serve at-large on the Executive Committee. Terms are for one year.

This meeting shall be set by the Governance Committee, which will notify all directors of the incoming Board by email—specifying the time, date, location and purpose of the meeting—at least two weeks in advance. The meeting will be presided over by the Chair of the Governance Committee or the designated committee member.

Should an office become vacant for any reason during a term and is not extinguished by Board action, the Board shall promptly elect a successor for the unexpired term.

Section B - Duties of the President.

The President shall be the executive officer of FoWB, shall generally supervise and control all of its employees and volunteer workers as well as all of the business affairs of the organization. The President shall annually appoint chairs of all committees. The President shall serve as the principal spokesperson for FoWB. When present, the President shall preside at all meetings of the membership and of the Board. The President is empowered to sign any deeds, notes, deeds of trust, mortgages, bonds, contracts, agreements with NPS and partnering organizations or other instruments which the Board has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board or by these bylaws to some other officer or agent of FoWB, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall perform all other duties incident to that office and such additional duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section C - Duties of the Vice-President.

In the absence or incapacity of the President or in the event the President's office is vacant, the Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the authority and powers of the President. The Vice- President shall perform such other duties as assigned by the President or by the Board.

Section D - Duties of the Secretary.

The Secretary shall:

1. Prepare and present the minutes of membership and board meetings;
2. Maintain and archive copies of all Board and membership meeting minutes;
3. Maintain a current list of the membership of all standing and ad hoc committees to be available to any FoWB member in good standing, upon request,
4. Perform duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as assigned by the President or the Board.

Section E - Duties of the Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall:

1. Have custody of, and account for all funds and investments of FoWB which have not been specifically placed in trust to another party;
2. Receive all monies due and payable to FoWB from any source, and deposit the same in the name of FoWB in such banks or other depositories as have been approved by the Board;
3. Unless otherwise instructed by the Board, disburse all sums legally due from FoWB in a timely manner;
4. Prepare and deliver to the Board at each meeting a Status of Funds Report and a Reconciliation of Funds report;
5. Be responsible for the timely filing of all reports with all appropriate government entities such as the US Government and the Commonwealth of Virginia, and for any other entities requiring financial information on FoWB;
6. Serve on the Finance Committee; and
7. In general perform all of the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as assigned by the President or the Board. If required by the Board the Treasurer shall post bond for the faithful discharge of his/her duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board shall specify.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee is composed of the officers of FoWB: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and one sitting Board member elected by the Board.

The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act on behalf of the Board between scheduled Board meeting regarding business matters that would be negatively impacted by a delay until the next scheduled Board meeting. The decisions of the Executive Committee are to be reported to the full Board at its next scheduled meeting. Any policy decisions would be subject to Board review and approval.

ARTICLE VII - COMMITTEES.

Section A - General.

1. Chairs of all standing committees shall be appointed by the newly elected President before the first board meeting of the calendar year, and if vacancies arise during the year, also by the President. The President shall not in any capacity chair a standing committee.
2. In addition to the standing committees listed herein, the Board may by resolution create ad hoc committees.
  - a. The creation of ad hoc committees is to be temporary, short term set time duration, with a specific intent and purpose.
  - b. The Board's resolution creating an ad hoc committee shall state the name, purpose and time duration of the ad hoc committee.
  - c. If the Board creates an ad hoc committee to exist longer than one year, then on the first and any annual anniversary date of the ad hoc committee, the Board shall consider whether the ad hoc committee's resolution should be reauthorized.
  - d. It is the intent of the Board that ad hoc committees do not supplant or duplicate work of the standing committees.
  - e. The President shall appoint the chair of any ad hoc committee and notify the Board within 10 days if the resolution creating the ad hoc committee does not provide the name of the chair. The ad hoc committee chair shall name the members of the ad hoc committee and provide those names to the Board prior to their first meeting. Ad hoc committees may include non-FoWB members.
3. The standing committee chair shall select at least one Board member to be on the committee and shall staff the committee with sufficient persons to accomplish its assigned task(s).
4. The standing committee chair has the authority and responsibility to create subcommittees, as necessary, to support the various missions, programs, and activities, as defined below, of the standing committee.
5. All members of a standing committee must be members in good standing.
6. Each standing committee shall meet at least twice a year.
7. Each standing committee chair shall provide reports to the Board for each Board meeting on its activities since the previous meeting and identify issues that require board discussion and/or action. Issues subject to Board engagement include but are not limited to those where circumstances require a new policy or modification or repeal of existing policy or amendment of existing practices where there are implications for FoWB overall. In those rare instances where action is needed prior to the next Board meeting, Chairs, through the President, may take the issue to the Executive Committee for consideration.

8. Committees, whether in a lead or supportive role on any given project or activity, are encouraged to collaborate.
9. The President is a non-voting, ex-officio member of each standing committee.
